

6 ABC Southeast Texas Chapter Member Companies Earned National Honors for Construction Project Excellence

Nederland, Texas, Feb. 10—ABC Southeast Texas Chapter today announced 6 member companies won 6 National Excellence in Construction® awards presented during ABC Convention 2025 in Las Vegas on Feb. 26. Associated Builders and Contractors recognized 96 of the nation’s top construction projects from 2024, including upgrades and renovations to hospitals and constructing hydraulic stations, sports complexes, government buildings and airports.

'These award-winning projects showcase the dedication, skill, and excellence that define ABC Southeast Texas Chapter members,' said Jane Gimler President and CEO of ABC Southeast Texas Chapter 'Their ability to overcome challenges, deliver high-quality work, and uphold the highest standards in our industry is truly inspiring. We celebrate their achievements and their contribution to building a stronger, safer, and more innovative future for construction.'

From industrial advancements to critical infrastructure, these projects stand as a testament to the exceptional craftsmanship and expertise within our chapter."

The EIC awards honor every member of the construction team, including the contractor, owner, architect and engineer. The winning projects are judged on complexity, attractiveness, unique challenges overcome, completion time, innovation and safety.

'These projects are the epitome of excellence in construction, demonstrating quality, health, safety and innovation in our industry," said 2025 Chair of the ABC National Board of Directors David Pugh, partner, Bradley, Birmingham, Alabama. "These 6 industry-leading projects completed by members of ABC Southeast Texas Chapter show how members of ABC build projects safely, on time and on budget."
